A Letter from your Vicar

The 5th of September (the day I became your Vicar) already seems so long ago. However, I really would like to thank everyone who was involved, it is an occasion that I will remember fondly for a great many years. Looking around the Church I felt that everyone brought something wonderful to the evening, everyone sung well (and loudly), everyone seemed to be smiling, and the Bishop said some surprisingly nice things about me too. I hope I can find some way to fulfil everyone's hopes but I am certain I will only be able to do so with your help and your prayers. Surely, so much joy and hope can only be satisfied with the help of our amazing God.

As a family we are beginning to settle into life here in Meltham, Isaac and Rebekah seem to be enjoying school, Jack seems to be sleeping well on a night, and Fiona is definitely enjoying Jack sleeping well on a night. As for me, I am struggling to remember just how many different things I have done over the last two weeks or so but, I really do feel like I have enjoyed them all. I'm sure in time that I will settle into a bit of a routine and that after I have been around the many different things a couple of times I will soon begin to feel that I know where I am. In the mean-time, thank you all for your patience and kindness.

As I go around the parish, attending meetings, visiting people, dropping in on events, and joining in with services I am doing something really important, something that I hope will provide a strong foundation for my own ministry here, I'm getting to know you. I hope to know you all individually (as far as possible), collectively as a community, and gain some understanding of how each group or congregation works. I believe this is an important foundation for ministry because of the Gospel imperative that our faith is built on an individual relationship with Jesus. In His infinite creativity God made each one of us unique and through this infinite creativity He is able to have a unique relationship with each of us. Of course, only God can truly know each of us in this way but with His and your help I believe that we can maintain the wonderful variety found across our Churches and the parish whilst building up our unity in love for each other.

- Rev John Dracup

Testimony Time...

It is said that two of the most stressful events in your life are; Moving House and having a baby. Well in true Dracup style we decided to do both... at the same time! Needless to say, these last 3-4 months have been 'interesting' but I know that God is good and He has been beside us through it all.

Jack, our youngest, was born on Sunday 24th June 2018 and came in quite a hurry, so much in fact John was still in his clergy shirt as he didn't have time to change after coming home from doing a Baptism! Unfortunately, a couple of days later his blood sugars had dropped dramatically low during the course of the evening and in the very early hours of Wednesday morning Jack was admitted to hospital with Hypoglycaemia and was attached to many wires and tubes to help keep him stable.

I distinctly remember his first day there, his doctor came to see him and perform some tests, he apologised in advance that he was going to make him cry. But Jack didn't cry, in fact he didn't respond at all. That's when I knew something really wasn't right. At that point my faith that God was with us in all this really came in, I couldn't have got through the time I spent in hospital without the knowledge that people all around the country were praying for Jack and I felt really carried and surrounded by His love for us.

God really did answer prayers over the two weeks we spent there. One by one each wire or tube eventually disappeared and his sugars gradually climbed until he was finally allowed home. However, due to the fact Jack's sugars dropped so low he now has severe brain damage. There is no denying this was a terrible time, finding out you have a baby with brain damage is not good.

Regardless of all of this and the difficulties faced, deep down my family and I know, that God is good! He always has been and always will be, a good God.

- Fiona Dracup

Welcome to the Marigold Café!

The Marigold Café opened 7th September at HRI, 10.30am - 12.30pm, and is on the first Friday of each month, alternating between the hospitals. This is part of the Trust's End of Life Care Strategy and is to support relatives of those who have died. Everybody collecting the Medical Certificate of Death from the hospitals will be given a flyer inviting them to the Café for support. The Café is however, open to all affected by grief.

In HRI, the Café is a joint venture with Age Concern and will be in Libby and Bertie's Lounge., where information and advice will also be available on practical help. As well as Age Concern staff and volunteers, the Café will be staffed by Chaplains (including Simon, our bereavement expert) and End of Life Companions (who have received training in this field)

The Café, when at CRH, will be based in the Hope Centre (Chapel) on the first floor above Costa Coffee, and again will be staffed by Chaplains and Companions. Gillian Sykes, Strategy Facilitator, will attend at both venues to offer advice.

Women's Supper Evening

The next 'Women's Supper and Speaker Evening' held at St James, Meltham Mills, will take place on Friday 19th October, beginning with supper served from 7.00pm.

Our speaker will be Victoria Minton who will be 'telling her tale' of her time recently spent in Palestine.

The supper will have a slight Middle East flavour and as always there will be a vegetarian option.

Soft drinks are available but please feel free to bring your own wine! Friends old and new will be most welcome.

There is no charge, but donations towards cost of supper are always appreciated!

ST MARY'S REPORT

On Sunday 19th August, we joined the congregation of Christ Church, Helme, and shared in the joy of a Baptism service led by Rev Dennis Shields. There was no service at St Mary's that day.

On Saturday 25th August, Peter Garlick and Jaquelyn Lawson were married at St Mary's. Rev Judy Kenworthy conducted the service and the bride was given away by her brother Andrew. The best man was Damon Hanson and their witnesses were Barbara Elvin and Patricia Garlick. The bride wore a white trouser suit and the bridegroom, best man and ushers wore navy blue. The church was full for this service which concluded with a rendition of "Paint your Wagon" as the couple processed out of church.

On the following day, we welcomed William Heywood and his family for his Baptism. Rev Judy led the service and William's Great Grandma, Jan Widdup, read the lesson. William's parents, Sarah and Robert, were presented with a copy of St Mark's Gospel and his sisters, Freya and Luna-Mae, helped Rev Judy as we looked at the symbols of Baptism. We sang "Happy Birthday" to Laura, who lit the Paschal Candle with the help of her Mum. William's Godparents were Isobel Widdop and Sam Winterburn. A children's prayer book, a book of Bible stories and a Baptism candle were presented to William's family during the service, along with a Baptism certificate and cards for the godparents. What a joy it was to share this happy time as we welcomed William into God's family.

There was a service of Holy Communion on the first day of September, which was led by Rev Judy, who also preached the sermon. Kim Howe assisted with the chalice and led the prayers, and Elizabeth Pearson read the lessons and played the organ.

There was no service at St Mary's on 9th September as we were invited to attend the Civic Service at St Bartholomew's Church, Meltham. We extend our best wishes to Cllr David Haigh as he takes up his role as Mayor of Meltham.

SERVICE OF INDUCTION AND INSTITUTION OF REV JOHN DRACUP

This service took place on Wednesday 5th September and what a special service it was. Rt Rev Dr Jonathan Gibbs conducted the service, assisted by the Archdeacon of Halifax the Ven Dr Anne Dawtry and the Rural Dean of Almondbury Rev Mark Zammit. Simon Ball was organist and St Bartholomew's choir did an excellent job of leading the singing. The lessons were read by Christine Woods and Norman Webb and members of various community organisations, the local schools and the council welcomed Rev John to his new post as Vicar of Meltham, and also, welcomed his family - his wife Fiona and children Isaac, Rebekah and Jack. Our thanks go to all our Churchwardens for arranging the evening and escorting the Bishop, to the four congregations for providing the refreshments, to those who produced the service sheets or helped in any way to make Rev John's welcome to Meltham a warm one.

We now look forward to getting to know our new Shepherd and his family and assure them of our love and support.

We have been made aware of some events during October & November that The Mirfield Centre are holding.

HELME LADIES

Tuesday 14th August was the last of the summer strolls, what a great series of walks we have had and the most beautiful weather. You could say that we had saved the best for last, a circuit of Digley Reservoir. It was another wonderful evening as we left the car park with stunning views all around. Because of all the dry weather over the summer the paths were in good condition too with no mud to be seen. There were not too many midges around either as they like the damp weather. During our walk we were passed by some runners and we threatened to join on the back of their group, I don't know who laughed loudest them or us. Just one section of the path is difficult, that is some very large and steep stone steps, but we managed with care. On crossing the dam banking, we noticed how low the water level was and how much rain we will need before the reservoir will be full again, it will be interesting to see how long it will take.

After the walk we all made our way to Compo's for supper, some of the best Fish and Chips around and served with tea, bread and butter. We ended the evening with a really good natter and all agreed that the series of walks had been both successful and enjoyable. I would like to thank the ladies who had lead the walks and organised the excellent suppers.

Saturday 18th August was the Helme Ladies Coffee Morning. We met early to set out the stalls and get the coffee on the go. There was a lot of cakes, scones and tray bakes, books by the dozen and a very full tombola stall. When the doors opened one or two drifted in, then a steady trickle and as the morning advanced the church hall was buzzing. The cake stall was wiped out and I think there were just 5 prizes left on the tombola. Thanks go to our coffee maker, she was kept busy all morning. We had a very successful morning thanks to all our helpers and we raised over £300 for our charity fund.

On our first evening back in Helme Church we had a very enjoyable and informative talk by Sue Whitwam, a volunteer at the Colne Valley Museum in Golcar. We learnt how the museum came about with a local teacher wanting to save the building from demolition. These were four houses that had been built with the row of windows at the top to let in the light for weaving and spinning. He also wanted it to be run by volunteers from the community with no interference from the council. The museum has now been operating for over 40 years and it now occupies all four which were purchased when funds were available.

Sue told us, in good old fashioned broad Yorkshire, what it would have been like to live and work in the houses when they were first built in the 18th Century. How the housewife had the week planned, Monday- washing, Tuesday- Ironing, Wednesday- cleaning upstairs, Thursday- cleaning downstairs and Friday- baking and shopping. Many of the gadgets we could remember from our parents and grandparents having them, in fact it was a laugh a minute and a very excellent evening.

A few from Denis A...

Following my recent hip replacement the surgical nurse came and asked me how I was feeling. "I'm okay" I said, "but I don't like the four letter word that the surgeon used during the operation". "Oh, I'm sorry" she said, "what was it he said?" "Oops!!" I replied.

Fred's missus accused Fred of being 'tight'.
So to prove her wrong, he took her out for tea and biscuits.
Fred said it was quite exciting as she 'd never given blood before.

"Have you brushed your teeth this morning?" I asked my wife.
"Yes" said June, "...and I brushed yours at the same time."

Tip when shopping with the missus:
Always hold hands affectionately... If you let go, she'll buy something.

Try to smile and be happy - from Denis A

Thank you for the cards and flowers given during my recent ill health - they cheered me up 'no end', as they say.

Thanks again - Sue Wood

Simon at The Alzheimer Concert

by Pam Murgatroyd

We've been to the Alzheimer concert,
My husband Peter and me.

We were doing the bar for Norman
And so all his guests we could see.

The children arrived from Lindley,
All ready to sing their hearts out.

The percussion act was a secret,
No one knew that was about.

But then Steph came in, she was the star,
A soloist no one could beat.

Simon her husband was with her,
But what has he got on his feet?

He must have got dressed in the dark
Or didn't care to look down,
See, his shoes did not match each other,
One was black and the other was brown.

He's always been so much in tune,
Intelligent, smart and keen.
But him wearing two shoes so different
Is something we've never seen.

He didn't even know what he'd done,
'Til he got out of the car and looked down.
Then although his suit was dark blue,
He was wearing odd shoes, black and brown.

A RIDDLE FOR SMART PEOPLE...

Can you answer all seven of the following questions with the same word?

1. The word has 7 letters...
2. Preceded God...
3. Greater than God...
4. More evil than the devil...
5. All poor people have it...
6. Wealthy people need it...
7. If you eat it, you will eventually die...

Did you figure it out?

(Answer on page 34)

Do you like singing? Come and join us.

Reset is a time to come - as you are - to reboot, refresh, pause & reflect Lizzy Robinson and Lottie Jones will be hosting the day, with Hope Plumb and a band from Worship Central leading worship. Confirmed speakers so far include Anne Calver and Miriam Swaffield.

Tickets are £25.00 and can be purchased through the website by entering 'New Wine Women's Day - Reset'

New Wine contact number - 02085 676717

Price also includes a lunch bag

(A number of ladies from Meltham have signed up already, please continue to spread the word or ask around if you are worried about being on your own)

'Last Night of The Proms' presents Charlotte Potter

Saturday 6th October, 7.30pm at St Bartholomew's Church

A talented, young soprano to perform solos and accompany Meltham & Meltham Mills Band.

Tickets are £8.00 and available from The Flower Box, Café 33 and entry on the door. Proceeds will be equally divided between the church and the subscription band.

Diary insert - 21st October

The Service at St James will have a slight difference on the 21st October. We will be celebrating Morning Worship with Reflections. The Theme will be 'God's Story – Our Story' and we are fortunate to have a Guest Speaker.

Jacqui Hance will be with us to share her Personal Story. Jacqui has a family and is the wife of the fairly recently appointed Dean of Derby Cathedral. She has also recently been appointed as Regional Manager with Operation Christmas Child. As Meltham is included in the area for which she is responsible, and as we will be only a couple of weeks away from the start of the 2018 OCC November campaign, we look forward to also hearing from her about new role.

“CHURCH BOOKING HOUR”

BY APPOINTMENT ONLY

For Baptisms/Weddings, arrangements for Banns or any other non-urgent enquiry, please contact the Parish office by phone or email for an appointment for our “Church Drop In”, which takes place at St. Bartholomew's Church, Meltham, on Thursday evenings from 6 -7pm. You will be able to speak to a member of the clergy, church warden or a member of the Pastoral team, who will be able to help with your enquiry.

Please note that when making arrangements for a wedding, it is important that both of you attend.

When you arrive you will be greeted by a member of our congregation, who will offer you tea or coffee and if you have to bring the children with you, we can direct them to the box of toys while you carry out your business.

To make an appointment, please contact Amelia on 07933 596734 or email: parishofchristtheking@gmail.com

We look forward to meeting you!

The page is decorated with autumn-themed illustrations. In the top-left and top-right corners, there are clusters of leaves in shades of orange, yellow, and red, with some dark purple leaves. In the bottom-left and bottom-right corners, there are clusters of dark purple leaves and small red berries. The text is centered in a black, cursive font.

Now he who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will also supply and increase your store
of seed and will enlarge the harvest of your righteousness.
