

THE PARISH OF MELTHAM

CHRIST THE KING

SEPTEMBER 2019

Grateful thanks to the good souls who came to toil in the Old Graveyard at St James'. Richard and Alison led the small but enthusiastic band of workers....Mike, Jane, Clinton (who brought a young man from Austria to help) and Stephen Caunce, encouraged to come by his wife Jean! Thank you SO much for giving your time and effort. It was much appreciated.

Some hard work gardening has made a difference to both graveyards. We also had more plants donated. Now we need to learn the best way to create a wildflower garden and a clover lawn!

Pastoral Team.

Our Story so far

Hi Debbie Still and Irene Harrop here,

We are currently training to be Lay Pastoral Ministers. I'm sure some of you are aware of our training and we thank you for your kind interest.

We have just come to the end of our 2nd year, with only 1 year left to go, so we thought it would be of interest to share with you how we are doing.

Both Debbie and I believe very strongly in the need for Pastoral Ministers in a parish. As part of our training we are learning not only how to be there for those that need a listening ear, but also to be able to support many of you who, as a part of your normal Christian life, are supporting others. We can also become an extra pair of eyes and ears for the Vicar should people want his help or support. Our vision is to see a strong, active and resourceful pastoral team that is able to meet the many and diverse needs of people in the parish, so the church becomes the first port of call for those in need whilst working closely with the specialised health and social care agencies.

Debbie and I have grown in our faith and have developed a greater understanding of ourselves, which is an important part of the course, as practical training is not enough.

We are looking forward to our final year polishing our skills going over areas we wish to revisit, and I hope to come back to you in a years time to share with you, in a little more depth, how we can be of service and help to our wonderful parish.

God Bless.

A note from the magazine team ...

Hi folks! Thank you so much to everyone who has contributed to this magazine, we are enormously grateful. Please keep it all coming for future issues. If you have sent something in and don't see it in this issue that means I'm saving it for later!

Our cover boy this month is Rev John Dracup helping out at the Ale Fest event during Meltham Memories weekend. You'll find more about Ale Fest at the back of the magazine and on p.13 a beautiful poem from Liz Ryan who attended Meltham Memories for the first time this year.

You'll notice we are making full use of the colour printing available for the cover pages. I've crammed in as many photos as I can; take a look and see how many familiar faces you can spot. I'll be in need of more photos for future issues, so if you're attending an event don't forget to take some snaps. You can send them directly to me or to Simon Ball for the parish facebook page, I'll download them from there.

If you would like to get more involved with the magazine either occasionally or regularly, please get in touch. We'd love to see you at meetings too, contact me for date and time.

Please note: the deadline for submissions for the October issue is Thursday 24th September.

You can contact us using: kxly95@gmail.com or 07976767296 and also via the vicarage letterbox.

God bless.

MELTHAM MEMORY

Wilf, looking quizzical, iPad detached,
asks are we going to the parade today.
We're not always here on our home patch.
It's where we belong but we're often away.
OK for us Meltham Memory is a good idea,
though I'm not sure how long we can stay.

On Colders Lane an old man passes,
burdened with bags, his shopping done.
His walk is determined, he's on the run,
from his memories not much fun.
By the church there's a breeze and bright flags lifting,
like a rainbow, a river flowing round the corner.

Crowds, are gathering, drifting.
The band is playing,
people move apart some waving.
From road to pavement, toddlers are waddling
beside babes in buggies, tykes on bikes,
five hairy walkers strayed from a hike.

Then a jumble of mums, arms linked, nat-tering,
taking no heed of their little girls chattering.
This good humoured gang makes me pause
to ponder
The call of history, the mystery,
its blunders, and wonders.

Patiently standing in this huddle,
at the cross roads, crowd cuddling we're waiting.
Wilf's too small he's missing the view.
What can I do?
A friend glances, sideways shuffling,
makes a space
thus giving his place, for Wilf who smiles and I do too.

A David Brown's tractor brings my Dad to mind.

There at the gate, at end of his shift,
Feel his hands on my ribs andthe lift....
He lifts, so I'm flying, eyes closed, into the sun and the sky.
A painter, see bold red and yellow there at the heart, of this long gone local success? This was his part.

Walking, breathing, warm air full of roasted pig,
past raffles, old cars and cake stalls too.
Then in the main tent, as hot as the hog,
for the children sent and wriggling, we shrink
so they can see grandpas wink, aunties blink,
and all of them smile, as they sing.

Long ago songs are here again sung.
History's call is to all,
the community choir has begun.

Wilf wants to go home for dinner.
I'm not yet keen, but I reconsider.
I think of the trials, the treats, the whole sum of all we have done.
Oh for that I would love to stay on.
No letting go and no handing on.
A tantrum could be my last wish,
Not a good example for Wilf.

Wilf leads from the tight tent gently we
we squeeze,
Each end a beginning, so hold steady.
Will I kindly and lightly leave with the same ease
On the day when I must be ready?
Then long ago songs will be here again sung
The community will go on singing their own old new song.

TRADITIONAL WEDDING ANNIVERSARY GIFTS

If you attended the wonderful St Mary's Flower Festival, did you try your hand at the Wedding Anniversaries quiz? Here's a follow article from Kim Howe to help you with the ones you couldn't remember at the time.

There are the traditional and modern materials related to each wedding anniversary, usually progressing from the weakest to the strongest as the years go by, to symbolise the strengthening of the relationship.

Before the 1930's not all wedding anniversaries had a material representing the year. Only the first anniversary and milestone anniversaries such as 5th 10th, 20th, 25th, 50th and 75th had a gift suggestion. Etiquette in Society, in Business, in Politics and at Home by Emily Post, published in 1922, contained suggestions for these milestones. Over the years more materials have been added and the list updated and modernised.

The UK list featured in our flower arrangements is what is now considered the list to go by. (There are also traditional and modern U.S. versions which were compiled by librarians at the Chicago Public Library in 2000 and are based on the American National Retail Jeweller Association's list published in 1937.)

Buying a traditional gift for your wedding anniversary is very important, each anniversary material has its own unique meaning which represents the stage you are in your marriage. The meaning may relate to you personally and provide a really great thoughtful touch to the very important task of buying gifts for your wedding anniversary.

St Mary's Report.

On 30th June there was no service at St Mary's allowing people to attend the United Service of Holy Communion at Christ Church, Helme.

Several of our services over the summer have been led by members of our worship team. On 7th July Church warden Clive Pearson led a Service of the Word when John Andrews read the lessons and Jacqueline offered the prayers. On 21st July Kim Howe led the annual Animal Service outside in the field at the back of the church. She used the animals of the bible to illustrate what God is like and was helped to do this by Evie, Rebecca, Jonah, Liz, Judy and Peter. The public had a good selection of picnic chairs to sit on and we were joined by nine dogs and quite a few soft and wooden animal toys. Elizabeth played the keyboard and Lynda Dunn played the violin to accompany the hymns. Lay reader Nigel Priestley led the prayers and Rev John Dracup gave the blessing of the animals (and the people). After two days of rain we were relieved to have a warm, dry day and to enjoy this happy day together.

We have also enjoyed Holy Communion services on July 14th, 28th and August 11th led by Rev John and Rev Judy. Our thanks go to Shirley, John, Lynda and Jonah for reading the lessons and to our musicians, communion assistants, sides-people and those who lead intercessions. On 4th August, Jacqueline France led a service based on St Mark's Gospel and included a meditation. Kim led the prayers which were based on the Lord's Prayer.

We would like to offer our congratulations to Stella Hutson and Nigel Kirkpatrick who were married at St Mary's on Saturday 3d August. The bride was given away by her brother Greer Morrison and her daughters were bridesmaids. The best man was Samuel Kirkpatrick and Nigel's daughters gave out sachets of rose petals following the service. Lizzie Carr read a poem and Jo Smith read from 1 Corinthians 13. the reception was held at 'The Huntsman' Inn,

It has been good to welcome two lots of visitors from Australia over the last few weeks. Wayne and Dallas came in June and threw themselves into helping with the Flower Festival and doing plenty of sight-seeing around Yorkshire. Then Cheryl arrived at the beginning of August after taking part in an archaeological dig in the Orkney Isles. It has been lovely to welcome her to some of our services. We hope that you have all had a good holiday, a nice rest and have recharged your batteries.

Do come and join a friendly group.
All abilities welcome.

Welcome to Church

Walking into church for the first time, or for the first time in a long time, can be daunting. Yet we know many people would like to 'Come and See'. So what will you find if you decide to give one of our churches a try? Over the next 3 months we aim to give a brief introduction to each of our four churches. We are starting this month with St James', Meltham Mills. In October we will cover Christ Church, Helme and St Mary's, Wilshaw. In November we shall look at St Bartholomew's.

So.....Welcome To St James', The Church By The Park.

We meet every Sunday morning at 9.30. On the second Sunday of the month we meet again at 5.00pm for 'Five Alive'. We are a small friendly bunch. The average congregation size is about 35, though we are keen to see that grow. Most of us are 50+ and our younger members would love some more people in their age group. You are welcome to 'come and see' and we promise you will be welcome though not pressured to come back again.

Our service style can be best described as varied and semi-structured with diversity and informality. The services all last about 1 hour and are followed by a cuppa and good biscuits! If you are running late still come and join us, you probably won't be the only late comer! We do understand how busy life can be.

The monthly pattern is:-- 1st Sunday at 9.30: 'ONE for ALL' an informal, all age worship service. The children help run this service.

2nd Sunday at 9.30: A Service of Holy Communion and at 4.30: Five Alive.

It's called Five Alive because it starts at 5.00pm but we meet at 4.30 to share Tea! Five Alive is a different, creative type of service run by a small team, which again is child friendly. Children are welcome to all of our services but 'One for All' and 'Five Alive' are the two that are especially child friendly.

3rd Sunday at 9.30: A Service of Music and Reflection. This service follows a theme with a visual audio presentation. It gives time to reflect on an aspect of our faith, in a focussed way, which is never boring.

4th Sunday at 9.30: our Second Service of Holy Communion

We are an active Church. Nearly all of our members are involved in activities beyond coming to church on Sunday. These include supporting Meltham through the Cross Roads Centre; Operation Christmas Child which last year saw us process 14,500, 'love in a box' shoe boxes; Meltham Mustard Seed; the Welcome Centre; both by collecting food for the food bank and through the Card Making Group who make and sell thousands of greeting cards to support the Centre's work. We also hold an annual coffee morning to raise funds for the charity 'Crisis' which supports the homeless.

So, if you would like to know more, why don't you 'Come and See' us one Sunday or give a call to one of the folks below, who will be happy to answer your questions.

Harvest at the Waggon and Horses

On Sunday 29th September at 7.30pm the Waggon and Horses in Meltham is playing host to Meltham Harvest Home organised by the parish of Meltham

Harvest Homes have a long history. Traditionally participants celebrated the last day of the harvest "in late September by singing, shouting and decorating the village with boughs".

It was held close to the time of the Harvest moon, the full moon closest to the autumn equinox. "There were songs and later hymns, games and dancing. It was a high spirited occasion, mingling the expression of gratitude with jovial good cheer" according to novelist Alyssa Everett Meltham Parish is bringing this traditional celebration back to the heart of the village. Ale houses were always involved - that's why Pam Cox and the Waggon and Horses will be the hosts. Games and dancing may be in short supply but expressions of gratitude and jovial good cheer will be there in abundance.

Simon Ball will be leading the singing (and possibly the shouting) of traditional Harvest hymns. There may be the odd reading celebrating Creation and Gifts.

There may not be too much of a grain harvest in Meltham but Melthamers are great growers of fruit and vegetables; they make jams and chutneys; some may even bake cakes. There will be the opportunity for any gifts grown or made by local people to be brought to the Waggon. There will be a Silent Auction and the money raised will be used to support local charities.

So if you fancy a hearty sing, or want to sell off some of your excess allotment products - whatever your reason, come and join us on 29th September

Discover the hidden call in your everyday life

A creative retreat using poetry, silence and conversation

Led by Adrian Scott

Adrian Scott is a poet, writer and amateur photographer who lives in the Rivelin Valley, Sheffield. He has written three books of poetry, one of prose, and has edited a collection of poetry by the two writing groups he facilitates.

St James Church, Meltham Mills,
Holmfirth, HD9 4AL

7th September 2019
10.00 am to 4.00 pm

The day includes a soup lunch, refreshments and cake. A suggested donation of between £5 and £10 to cover costs would be appreciated.

Be attentive to the ordinary so that you can connect to a deeper sense of the sacred in your life's journey. The tools of the retreat - writing, discussion, listening and silence – will help us to make sense of all that goes on within.

*Only when you cut the motor will vision find you.
Only when you are ready to attend will your soul's map unfold.
Only then will the path you took make sense
And the way ahead appear out of the mist.*

Helme Ladies Report July 2019

The ladies decide when they are putting their programme together to make the most of the longer summer evenings and get outside. During June and July they have a series of walks, each one led by a different member around different areas of the Meltham and Netherton valley, showing the other members some of their favourite spots. As some of the members are getting on in years and are not all able to go on the walks, some members will show up for the supper and a chat.

At last we had a sunny evening in store for us on Tuesday 16th July when we met at Marsden Railway Station. Our walk was this time down the canal, and it was a case of let's see how far we can get before we have to return as supper was booked for 8.00pm. We set off in the beautiful evening sunshine with instructions that we should be able to get as far as Sparth Reservoir. As we went along we admired the gardens that reached the canal side and also the splendid reflections in the water. When we reached Sparth we took a few moments to take in the view, then it was about turn to retrace our steps back to Marsden. Although we were walking the same stretch of canal, the views in the opposite direction are different. After much chatting we arrived back in Marsden and at this point I must say that on our walks we never suffer from leg ache! Then it was to the New Inn where supper was waiting for us, a buffet with sandwiches and chips. After all of our exertions we made a great hole in the food and those chips were wonderful.

Well what can we say about Tuesday 30th July! After a fairly decent day the evening was to say the least WET. The showers were long and heavy, with some rumbles of thunder, and the drier bits between were getting shorter, so a walk in that sort of weather was out of the question. We should have been going down Meltham Greenway, Folly Dolly Falls would have been in spate and an impressive sight, but we didn't go down to see. Instead we retired to the supper venue and in dry warm surroundings decided who was doing what for our coffee morning, who was going on the next walk and who would be going on the afternoon tea. The evening wasn't wasted but we hope for a nice warm evening for our next walk which will be the last of the season.

SMART BARTS

Our Smart Barts meet every Sunday at 9.30am at St Bartholomew's alongside the usual service. The children range in age from 2yrs - 11yrs and we run a range of activities to involve everyone. We have our own room where we sing, colour, craft and have great fun learning about the stories of Jesus, the love of God and important traditions and festivals in our church.

Look out for further updates on our projects in the magazine and our Smart Barts board is always full of our creations at the front of the church!

Wilshaw Youth Group

On Friday 26th July Wilshaw Youth Group held it's Launch Night in the Sunday School. Jacqueline and Kim hosted the first meeting and Freya and Cameron came up with ideas of how to proceed from a young person's point of view. They enjoyed pizzas and pop and arranged the next meeting for Friday 30th August 7pm-8.30pm. This group is for young people aged 11yrs – 17yrs and will be a safe place to make new friends.

Real Ale Fest & Hog Roast at Meltham Memories 50/60s event July 2019

Maybe it was the recollection of the exertions of last year's weekend-long 10th Anniversary Meltham Memories that saw us get off to a relatively slow start with the organisation for this years do; and there was a change to the format too - to a 50s/60s theme - which left us wondering if previous successes would be repeated this year. Oh and surely this year we were due a wet one! Add to that the close proximity of Meltham's own beer festival and the sorely felt absence of Anthony Bolland due to illness - there were a myriad of factors the team had to deal with in its early deliberations.

This year as well as raising funds for St Bartholomew's we agreed to support the Church Hall Rejuvenation project and, as ever, hopefully trade well enough to be able to make a contribution to the Meltham Memories fund. Peter Blackburn took on seeking the commercial sponsorship that Anthony had previously done and without which the affair could be a tad risky. Our aim obviously is to sell up and so there would be only 10 beers and just one hog for the 2019 event. But the Hog, when it came, was an absolute beaut!

We had an early success in getting what we thought was our USP for this year's event – a promise of the "loan" and display of three Classic Cars which on the day generously became four magnificent and very popular attractions for our customers and their families. Grateful thanks for their generosity, time and patience, to car owners Tim Patchett, John Blackburn, Aidan Crowe and David Neal whose beloved, splendid vehicles really caught the eye.

Our thanks go to the Church congregation and to Margaret Thorley who respectively purchased and sold the various cuts of our Hog until its cost of £420 was just about covered. Our grateful thanks too to our commercial sponsors who enabled us to maximise the profit on our craft beer, cider, wine and prosecco sales. Before the day, a total of £2,035 had come in cash from our business partners while others had provided their services without charge. Please take time to look at the page opposite for all those who sponsored us – look them up and support them if you can please.

As per usual the actual day wasn't without its challenges. Rain overnight had left a cool, damp, overcast early morning; two beer engines which worked perfectly when being cleaned the previous day failed to work when needed; and the parade's route this year would end in a different place. In the event our worries proved unfounded for after a slow start we were suddenly inundated by thirsty and hungry merry-makers. What's more, those clouds had rolled away leaving a hot sunny day that was perfect for a barbie! And Anthony was more or less recovered to take part on the day. The result - raising a total of £5,430 to allocate to our three worthy causes – meant that the team were well pleased with their efforts.

Thank you so much to all the members of the organising team (you know who you are) who planned the event, sold sponsorship, selected the ale and provisioned the Hog Roast. Also to all those who helped in setting up on the Friday and on the day itself, either pulling pints or pulling pork. Special thanks to Alan and Margaret Ball for their critical production, which is the bar; as ever a work of art! To Aidan Crowe for procuring the quality selection of beers etc. To Ben and Dom Curtis who worked tirelessly setting up the beer lines and pumps, and to Ben and Tom Bolland for their general factotum-ship throughout the day. Thanks also to Damian Blackburn for providing and delivering chairs and helping with the clear up and dismantling operation the following day.

Without our volunteers' unfailing help and welcoming faces on the day, the event could not be a success. Thanks too to our friends in the Church Hall for the use of the facilities and space. Keep abreast of any news about future Memories events.
